EDUCATORS ATTEND

Further Sessions In Old Marshall House

To-day.

Kent, Anderson and West, met in the old Marshall house last night and heard representatives from the various State educational institutions as to the amounts they will ask from the coming Legisla

The hearing was under a resolution of

The hearing was under a resolution of the board, the object of which was to devise, if possible, some plan to prevent unseemly scrambles before the Legislature for appropriations and for all to agree upon what each desires and ask for it jointly.

The committee took no action upon the proposition, but went on with hearings as to amendments to the school laws, and these will be continued at 10 o'clock this morning. A large number of prominent educators were present, and most of them took part in the proceedings.

Among them, besides Superintendent Joseph W. Southall, were Dr. Richard Mcliwaine, Rev. James Carnon. Hon. S. S. P. Patteson, Librarian J. P. Kennedy, President Lyon G. Tyler, of William and Mary; Professor James L. Jarman, president of the State Female, Normal School at Farmville; Dr. Christopher Tompkins, and Dr. Davidson, of the Medical College of Virginia; Dr. S. C. Mitchell, of the Co-operative Educational of Mitchell, of the Co-operative Educational Commission; Senator A. F. Thomas, of Lynchburg; Professor Willis A. Jenk's, of Newport News, and Messrs. E. H. Russell, C. G. Maphis and James S. Thomas, of the State Board of Examiners and Inspectors; Mr. Kent Rawley, Mrs. L. R. Dashiell, and Mrs. L. B. Munford, L. R. Dashiell, and Mrs. L. B. Munford, of the Richmond Educational Association. President James H. Johnston, of the colored Normal and Industrial School at Petersburg, was also present.

Dr. Kent Busy.

The University of Virginia, the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind were represented by Dr. W. P. Kent. Represented the serious for which they will ask, but the committee took no action. While the committee declined to give out the various sums, it is stated that they are all modest and not far, in excess of are all modest and not far, in excess of are all modest, and not far in excess of those usually sought.

The committee then considered amendments and a ditions to the present school laws, to be recommended to the Legislature, and heard many suggestions along these lines.

A Strong Appeal.

A Strong Appeal.

Senator Thomas made a remarkably able argument, and produced figures to show that the rural districts are unable by local taxation to maintain an efficient public school system.

Speeches were along the same line by Messrs. Mitchell, Patteson and others. Libraries in the public schools were discussed by Mr. Kennedy, Mrs. Dashiell, Mr. C. G. Maphis and others. Senator Thomas, Rev. James Cannon and others discussed the subject of high schools, after which, at nearly midnight, the committee adjourned until 10 o'clock this mittee adjourned until 10 o'clock this adjourned until 10 o'clock this

PAYNTER SUCCEEDS

Sentiment of Kentucky Caucus Also Indicates that McCreary Won't Succeed Himself.

FRANKFORT, KY., January 2 .- Judge Thomas H. Paynter, of the Kentucky of the hardest fought senatorial struggles waged during the past twenty years of Kentucky politics. His nearest opponent was J. C. S. Blackburn, the incumbent who represented Kentucky in the House and Senate with but one intermission for nearly a quarter of a century. When the joint caucus met tonight there was no contest over the chairmanship. Senator Henry George, a Paynter supporter, who was last night chosen chairman of the Senate caucus, was unanimously chosen to preside. United States Senator James B. McCreary was Senator Blackburn's chief supporter, and in this connection, politicians already foresee one of the effects of the contest on Kentucky politics in the future.

Thomas H. Paynter was born in Lewis county, Ky., December 19th, 1851. He has served three terms in Congress, and is a member of the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

SMALL NUMBER OF MEN COMPELLED TO STRIKE

Representatives of the Typographical Union Say That Principle is Already Won

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, January 2.—Twelve hunfred union printers, the employes of orty-four book and job printing concerns Typothetae, against whom the strike was declared, asserted to-night that hundreds of non-union printers from various parts of the country are hurrying to New York to take the places of the strikers and to secure the high wages paid in this city. Representatives of the typographical union say that the eight-hour day principle has already been won in New York, and that the percentage of men compelled to strike is very small.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., January 2.—

Both employers and printers to-day express themselves as satisfied with the strike situation in this city. Seventy shops and 700 men are involved in the strike. Twenty-four non-typothetae firms have granted the demand for an eight-hour day.

NEWSPAPERS ARE NOT AFFECTED

Offices.

It is of interest to know that "the strike" which was ordered on yesterday by the International Typographical Union in all offices which did not grant its printers the eight-hour day will not affect the newspaper offices in Richmond.

The agreement now existing between the newspaper employers and their employes is satisfactory, and consequently there will be no strike.

Mr. M. R. Pace, president of the local Typographical Union, gave out the following statement last night:

"The newspapers are not involved in the trouble between the printers and their employers. It is simply a fight with the book and job printers. Quite a number of newspaper proprietors who were not previously working eight hours have, at the 'request' of their own men, medituted the eight-hour day. The union has find nothing to do with the matter, which has been in the form of a 'request,' and not a 'demand.' There will be no trouble with the newspaper offices offices in Richmond. The international Committee has left the newspaper office question to be decided by the men themselves, who have invariably made 'a request,' but not 'a demand." Major Gaines said Virginia was upon the eve of a great era of business prosperity and that now was the time for a successful fair. "Put it upon business principles, and we are bound to succeed." he said, amid much applause. All we need to make this fair a success is faith and money, and well have no trouble in getting either if we go about it in the right way.

Colonel John Murphy, Mr. Joseph Wallerstein, Messrs Bryan Williams, Sydnor. Cohen and others made brief speeches, all full of encouragement for the fair, and there were assurances of support from the three daily papers and from Mr. John Bell, representing an agricultural journal. Mr. C. E. Sydnor, of the Virginia Horticultural Society, announced that his organization would give an exhit here on January 32-34, and he invited the committee to attend, saying his society would heartify cooperate in the movement of the fair.
